You're in Love

Ratt

You take the midnight subway train
You're callin' all the shots
You're struck by lightning, you're in loveYou take the evening one on one
You're only livin' to have fun
You want to use me, take me home tonight
I'll make you wish that you were mineYou're struck by lightning, you're in love
It's not worth fighting, you're in love
Well, turn around, remember me
I'm the one who's out and aimed to please
You're in love, you're in loveYou make your livin' lovin' hot
You spin me like a top
You take the evening one on one
You're only livin' to have funYou're struck by lightning, you're in love
It's not worth fighting, you're in love
Well, turn around, remember me
I'm the one who's out and aimed to please
You're in love, you're in loveWell, turn around
(Turn around)
Remember me
(Remember me)
Well, turn around
(Turn around)
I'm the one who's out and aimed to pleaseYou're in love, you're in love
You're in love, you're in love
You're in love, you're in love
You're in love, you're in loveYou take the midnight subway train
(You're in love)
You're callin' all the shots
(You're in love)You take the evening one on one
(You're in love)
You're only livin' to have fun
(You're in love)It's not worth fighting
(You're in love)
You're in love, you're in love
