

L.A.F

BROODS

Kissing in the hallway
Turn off all the lights
Fragments of a lost love

Dissolve into the night
And I'll never get this feeling out of my head
And I'll never wanna be the one you forget
But it's the pain inside your eyes

Under the streetlights, I got you
Your restless limbs are going wild
Coming for mine 'cause I've got you
Climb into the backseat
Sitting on each other's knees
Wanna be on repeat

Acting like real ladies
And I'll never get this feeling out of my head
And I'll never wanna be the one you forget
But it's the pain inside your eyes

Under the streetlights, I got you
Your restless limbs are going wild
Coming for mine 'cause I've got you
I got you
And I'll never get this feeling out of my head
And I'll never wanna be the one you forget
But it's the pain inside your eyes
Under the streetlights, I got you
Your restless limbs are going wild
Coming for mine 'cause I've got you
