Defeatist

Ashylus

Trapped within your own apathy Spiraling into a cycle of loss Beaten mind with a bruised reflection
It's addiction to failure and substances that ties you to your selfish punishment
In your eyes it's cursed No fix, no cure, tortured with imperfection
Your hatred is aimless
This is my hatred, this is my vow Never to be broken erogenousCause you hate your self and you hate this world
and you hate the fact that you hate every momentDefeatist, you and I will never be the same I've taken this vow of hatred, take the vow
A promise to myself to never be my own defeatist
This is my hatred, this is my vow
Never to be brokenCause you hate your self
and you hate this world
and you hate the fact that you hate every momentDefeatist, you and I will never be the sameI take this vow I take this vow of hatred
I take this vow, never to be broken
