

'Cause I Like It That Way

SHeDAISY

Hey Jack, take back all those lines you're tripping

That's not who I am

It ain't that quaint, your composure's slipping

Right into my hands('Cause when, just a little bit, just a little bit)

I smile

(Just a little bit)

You fall hardStop listening to you, start listening to me

I'll know when the lights are changing, you'll see

If you're liking the view

Baby, it don't come free, yeah, yeahThink you're gonna stay

'Cause I like it that way

I think you're gonna stay

'Cause I like it that way, yeahTime to undo, all your archaic thinking

We're supposed to share this cave

Bye, bye, tough guy

Won't know what hit you 'till you're down, your heart is mine to save('Cause when just a little bit, just a little bit)

I smile

(Just a little bit)

You fall hardStop listening to you, start listening to me

I'll know when the lights are changing, you'll see

If you're liking the view

Baby, it don't come free, yeah, yeah

(Never, never)I think you're gonna stay

'Cause I like it that way

I think you're gonna stay

'Cause I like it that way, yeah('Cause when just a little bit, just a little bit)

I smile

(Just a little bit)

You fall hardStop listening to you, start listening to me

I'll know when the lights are changing, you'll see

If you're liking the view

Baby, it don't come free, yeah, yeah

(Never)Stop listening to you, start listening to me

I'll know when the lights are changing, you'll see

If you're liking the view

Baby, it don't come free, yeah, yeahI think you're gonna stay

'Cause I like it that way

I think you're gonna stay

'Cause I like it that way, yeah I think you're gonna stay
'Cause I like it that way
Think you're gonna stay, think you're gonna stay
Think you're gonna stay, uh, huh 'Cause I like it that way
(Think you're gonna stay)
('Cause I like it that way)
'Cause I like it that way (Think you're gonna stay)
('Cause I like it that way, yeah)
Think you're gonna stay
('Cause I like it that way)
'Cause I like it that way (Think you're gonna stay)
'Cause I like it that way
(Think you're gonna stay)
'Cause I like it that way
