

Flaming Heart

Meat Puppets

Praise the sight
Someone dropped a ball on me
Damn the wind
Giving life to sails Human sin
Couldn't stir a fire in me
Damn the night
As the powders fail And one beam of light is failing
From a single crazy eye
And it sweeps the inside sky
From east to right Flaming heart
Burning up Play tonight
Someone slaps a name on me
Damn the sight
Painted on my eyes Back to life
Passing through the wall to me
Feel the fire
Violet, black and white And one beam of light is failing
From a single crazy eye
And it sweeps the inside sky
From east to right Flaming heart
Burning up Late tonight
Someone pinned a tail on me
Later on
Someone robbed me blind Took my life
Took my box of chicken teeth
Take the blame
Trusted enemy
