

I Never Stopped Lovin' You

John Michael Montgomery

I guess everybody goes to the grocery store, even me
There's no tellin' who in the world there you're gonna see
Lost in space at the cash only aisle number three
I came face to face with an old memory Caught by surprise I felt I was gasping for air
Paper or plastic, can't you see man I don't really care
She hadn't noticed me and I thought I'd leave it that way Then her eyes met mine and from that point there was no escape I said "It's wonderful to see you, this is sure a nice surprise
Your little girl is lovely no doubt she's got your eyes
Yeah, it looks like it might rain today but I guess we're overdue
Oh and by the way I never stopped lovin' you" I remember where you got that sweatshirt you're wearin', do you?
I won it at the county fair back in '92
Yeah, I'm still playin' softball with the same old bunch
In a lot of way things haven't changed very much
