Say Anything

You're looking quite sharp, sugar.
You've got some teeth on that stare.
You've got them tattered blue jeans on.
You've done that thing with your hair.
This bed could use a secret, and these pounding hearts could keep it.
If you could, i could, i swear.CHORUS
'Cause you turned me on, and i'd like to know if you were trying... Turned me on.
And angel we are so gone.
And by tonight, the earth bursts open.
By tonight, we shed this clothing.
By tonight, you'll see me from the angle that you missed.
(Angle that you missed. 2X)
Nothing exists... but this. (2X)You're looking high strung sugar. Why don't you sink a little bit?
Into the sea of sweat, our skin can spit.
It was good to keep me guessing because you know i hate attention,
But can we get down to it? Can we get down to it?REPEAT CHORUSGuitar!
