

Romeo & Rabeca

Blink 182

Walking through the grass As the wind does pass Another blade next to you from the ground I notice as you feel the breath of my shout Your words are kind But that's alright The kind that repeatedly say no I'm older than you so I've got time What have you said, reach out your hand But as I look into my mind There's a black shadow on my wall I can see that girls are a waste of time We've all seen the bridge You think your words will work They only work when you lay down and close your eyes A broken seam and a girl on one side I thought of all the lines All the right ones used at all the wrong times Depression's just a sarcastic state of mind What have you said, reach out your hand But that's alright There's a black shadow on my wall But as I look into my mind I don't want to live alone I can see that girls are a waste of time I don't want to live in I don't want to live along with My broken dreams of you My broken dreams of you I don't want to live along with My broken dreams of you
