Straight American Slave

Rocket from the Crypt

Say hello to my little friend
A broken spleen and a heart of gold
Has a face that the world adores, yeah
But lives a life that belongs in hell, noBut we ain't movin' now
But we ain't movin' now
But we ain't movin' nowBuffalo soldier
Break dance with knives stuck in your back
Holy water
Pours out of stretch marks from your pastA straight American slave
A straight American slaveSay hello to my little friend
A broken spleen and a heart of gold
Has a face that the world adores, yeah
But lives a life that belongs in hell, noBut we ain't movin' now
But we ain't movin' now
But we ain't movin' nowBuffalo soldier
Break dance with knives stuck in your back
Holy water
Pours out of stretch marks from our pastBuffalo soldier
Break dance with knives stuck in your backA straight American slave
A straight American slave
