Body (Stint Remix)

Niia

You back off to start again
You come on strong to win
I let you in my skin
Slow down, time is your friend
It's my love for you
Oh, it's my love for you
It's my love for you
Oh, it's my love for you
We could be strangers
We could be strangers in the night
Or we could be lovers
As long as you love my body right
We could be strangers
We could be strangers in the night
Or we could be lovers
As long as you love my body right
We could be, we could be
As long as you love my body right
We could be, we could be
As long as you love my body right
You play rough, you push, I bend
Close to the bone, slight sin
I should warn you once it begins
No control, no hands
It's my love for you
Oh, it's my love for you
It's my love for you
Oh, it's my love for you
We could be strangers
We could be strangers in the night
Or we could be lovers
As long as you love my body right
We could be strangers
We could be strangers in the night
Or we could be lovers
As long as you love my body right
We could be, we could be
As long as you love my body right
We could be, we could be

As long as you love my body right
You pull me back again, you pull me back
You pull me back again
You pull me back again
Ooh, I don't want this to end
We could be strangers
We could be strangers in the night
Or we could be lovers
As long as you love my body right
We could be strangers
We could be strangers in the night
Or we could be lovers
As long as you love my body right
We could be, we could be
As long as you love my body right
We could be, we could be
As long as you love my body right
