

No One Is Fine

The Fire Tonight

callous liar
bitter coward
spiteful pessimist
selfish perfectionist don't pretend don't be the same
don't feed me lines
be honest with yourself
we're not okay
no one is fine [chorus] broken flawed
striving for perfection we promptly dispense our judgments with an apathetic grin setting ourselves up to triumph in pointless comparisons feeding our self-esteem with our self-righteous arrogance [chorus]
