July

Chrishan

I couldve loved you for hours
I couldve loved you for days
If I had been less a guy I would have
I would have gave you a name yeaIf I wouldnt worry about the little things
Cause growing up I didnt had much of anything
I wouldnt be on this road
Crying God I cant take it no moreRemember back where you used to stay
You told me even if we go our ways
You were mine, I was yours
And one day you walked through that doorI wont go, Ill hold on
Even if the rain comes down in the middle of July
Ill be strong, I wont move on
Even if the rain comes down in the middle of JulyWe couldve shared life together
We couldve shared love forever
Im just a kid from the ghetto
I didnt know any betterNo excuse for my chance
They say its no use chasing that there
My pain you understand
That I could be a better manRemember back where you used to stay
You told me even if we go our ways
You were mine, I was yours
And one day you walked through that doorI wont go, Ill hold on
Even if the rain comes down in the middle of July
Ill be strong, I wont move on
Even if the rain comes down in the middle of JulyEven if the Said Even if the
Even if the
Rain comes down
Middle of JulyI wont go, Ill hold on
Even if the rain comes down in the middle of July
Ill be strong, I wont move on
Even if the rain comes down in the middle of July
Even if, even if the rain comes down
I wont go, Ill hold on (even if, even if)
Even if the rain comes down in the middle of July
