

You're Still Here

Faith Hill

Thought I saw you today
You were standing in the sun then you turned away
And I knew it couldn't be but my heart believed
Oh, it seems like there's something everyday
How could you be so far away when you're still here?
When I need you you're not hard to find
You're still here
I can see you in my baby's eyes
And I laugh and cry
You're still here
I had a dream last night
That you came to me on silver wings of light

I flew away with you in the painted sky
And I woke up wondering what was real
Is it what you see and touch or what you feel?
'Cause you're still here
Oh, you're everywhere we've ever been
You're still here
I heard you in a stranger's laugh
And I hunger on to hear your laugh again, just once again
Thought I saw you today
You were standing in the sun then you turned away, away
