

Evie

Johnny Mathis

There ain't no future in it Evie
We never should begin it Evie
Someone's already written a song for you
You're so right for me
But I'm a wrong for you If times was half a nice guy Evie
We might have had a nice try Evie, oh Evie
But sometimes a single moment
Changes all the ones that follow
And though its doom then dawn, then dying
Something in we won't stop trying
Evie it's up to you
