Clarity

The Hurt Process

[Chorus:]
Stepping out of the car
Into thriving emptiness,
Where nothing seems right.
It must have been 20 before it started and Nothing seems real until all eyes are on me...Educated actions take over Until that moment when true honesty shines through
And in your heart it all makes perfect sense,
Until that moment of clarity...Time like these,
Grip your (my) throat and stop your heart
Leaving me (you) with no voice and no breath
I'm just drowning in confused emotion,
I don't know where to look,
Where to stand and how to feel...[Chorus]And in your heart it all makes perfect sense [4x]Time like these,
Grip your (my) throat and stop your heart
Leaving me (you) with no voice and no breath
I'm just drowning in confused emotion,
I don't know where to look,
Where to stand and how to feel...
