First Glimmer

Paul Westerberg

Do you remember me long ago
Used to wear
My heart on my sleeve
I guess it still showsWe watched
The sun fall down
And I hop on my bike
Still that nightYou're my first glimmer of light
You were my
You was my first, glimmer of lightAnd the leaves were burning up in the street
I guess they tore that bridge out
Where we used to meet
And no one can see thereYou're my first glimmer of light
You were my
You was my first glimmer of lightWore my jacket
And I wore your sweater
Underneath the bridge
Was an Indian summer
Purple mascara
Safety pins kickin' the dirtTook off your jacket
Took off my sweater
And we made a wish
Things would never be better
Train whistle blew
My wish won't come, oh noYou were the first glimmer of light
You was my first glimmer of light
You're my first glimmer of light
You was my first, you was my firstWore my jacket
And I wore your sweater
Underneath the bridge
Was an Indian summer
Purple mascara
Safety pins God did it hurtTook off my jacket
Took off your sweater
And we made a wish
Things would never be better
Train whistle blew
And my wish came trueYou was my first glimmer of light
You was my first glimmer of light
You was my first glimmer of light

You was my first glimmer of lightOh, baby now
Yes you were
Yes you were
Yes you were
