Big Business

Steal yourself
and cover up
it's colder than you think Avoid the vipers how can you tell they're the ones with the real mean stares you don't have to get bigger but you have to get out of this space When your body's tired take a rest
if you're lost follow the sun
you'll need focus strong back for work it's going to take some time but not mine You don't have to get bigger but you have to get out of this space How can I build it all you don't haste and you will what if I feel afraid
stay calm and be still
and if it falls apart
well that's luck
and some things can only get better Steal yourself
and cover up
it's colder than you think
but you have to get out of this space You don't have to get bigger
and some things can only get better...
