

Endorama

Kreator

This is the end of all life's suffering

This is the end of all life's pain

Fear, destruction, greed, exists no longer

Nothing's left now, nothing can remainIt's getting closer, follow my friend

Endorama is crushing you, this the end

Expect no mercy just understand

Endorama comes for you, this is the endThis is the end of your false paradise

This is the end of mankinds pride

Masques of selfishness needed no longer

All forgotten dark illusions diedIt's getting closer, follow my friend

Expect no mercy just understand

Endorama comes for you, this is the endAs long as you're alive you've got to suffer

Death will take you from this labyrinth

(Endorama)

Open up you'll see, this life just can't be real

Don't look back just let it all go into Eden or infernoThis is the end of all your struggling

This is the end of this domain

Hate, regression, lies, exist no longer

As earth becomes the epitaph of CainIt's getting closer, follow my friend

Endorama is crushing you, this the end

Expect no mercy just understand

Endorama comes for you, this is the endThis is the end, this is the end

Endorama is crushing you

This is the end, this is the end, this is the end

Endorama comes for you, this is the end
