Home Sweet Hell

Susperia

Do or die, is the best choise you have
Make or break, do you think it'll wait for you Face the facts, take a shot at what you want
Make it work, it'll never come to youIs this all, is there nothing left inside
Be without, if that's what suits you fine
Don't forsake, things that slip away will not come back
Why do you fornicateExpand your senses, break down fences
Don't listen to the lies
Divide and conquer, make a difference
Forlorn is not your nameHere we are in the prime of our lives
and you're just stuk inside yourself
We do it right, we pick our fights
But you wanna stay in home sweet hellExpand your senses, break down fences
Don't listen to the lies
Divide and conquer, make a difference
Forlorn is not your nameLive or die, was the best choise you had Make or break, did you think you it would wait for you Face the facts, you never took a shot
Make it work, you didn't want it to comeExpand your senses, break down fences
Don't listen to the lies
Divide and conquer, make a difference
Forlorn is not your nameHere we are in the prime of our lives
and you're just stuk inside yourself
We do it right, we pick our fights
But you wanna stay in home sweet hellYour own sweet hellDoing it again, waking up in vain
Feeling all the pain, everything's insane
Entering the game, searching all the fame
I cannot belive, all I can't achieveHome sweet hell
