F.E.F.E.

Tender Defender

My body's broken
No I aint joking and I still don't have any money and nothing's working

I've stopped complaining 'cause nothing's changing cause when it's changing you can't stop complaining having one of those days that make you crazy

fuck everyone
and fuck everything
I just want to go to sleep and not have any dreams but I can never sleep and all I do is dream
so fuck everyone
and everything

my body's achin'
hands are quakin'
like a cold wet dog in the middle of the street and I know up and out is getting you down but the fate is really hidden like a stone in the ground sit and scream all day it never goes away

the smell of roses
don't mean your rosey

but all I do is sleep and have the strangest dreams where I lose everyone and everything

I'd like to love everyone and love everything but I'm not a fucking sheep yeah I'm a human being and when I finally sleep I'm finally free in my dreams you live much too much to just be just one thing

oh one thing

yeah one thing
