

Arrow Through Your Heart

Jimmy Demers

Never trusted love much.
Too afraid, out of touch.
Didn't wanna play that game.
Everytime love was near,
overcome by the fear,
I would run away.

I couldn't let my feelings show,
??and that was falling on me.??
Nobody ever let me know,
that you were comin' for me. OH!

Love is like a hunter, and when it finds you,
it puts an arrow right through your heart.
You came right to me, as if you knew me,
and put an arrow right through my heart.

Everytime I've tried before,
love felt an act of war.
I could never win.
??Everytime I practically,??
kept my heart locked away,
hopin' it would mend.

I couldn't let my feelings show,
??and that was burnin' on me.??
Nobody ever let me know,
that you were coming for me. OH!

Love is like a hunter, and when it finds you,
it puts an arrow right through your heart.
You came right to me, as if you knew me,
and put an arrow right through my heart.

I couldn't let my feelings show,
??and that was burnin' on me.??
Nobody ever let me know,
that you were coming for me. OH!

Love is like a hunter, and when it finds you,

it puts an arrow right through your heart.
You came right to me, as if you knew me,
and put an arrow right through my heart.

You put an arrow right through my heart.
You put an arrow right through my heart.
You put an arrow right through my heart.

You put an arrow through my heart.

Arrow right through my heart.

You put your arrow.

Arrow right through my heart.

You put your arrow.

You put your arrow right through my heart.

You put your arrow.

You put your arrow right through my heart.
