Holy fire burns again
The Magic Circle is all around it
Burning like the innocence of love
Let the mist surround itSpinning like the Fortune Wheel
Hand into hand, we pray together
Visions of a future world appear
As the holy fire burnsAnd a face is there
From the smoke a face is rising
Ancient, like the reason of lifeGet your body close to mine
There is a Ritual longing for us
Such a thing you await
For all your life
Let yourself surrender nowAnd a face is there
From the fire a face is rising
Mystic, like the reason of lifeHoly Flame,
The Ritual yearns without you
Understand,
The Mystery lies about you
Once again the fate has
Crossed our ways
As the fire burns away...Hold on
Cause I need you
And I want to know
What took so long...
And your Fortune,
You just need to understand!Holy Fire burning on Closing the Circle back together
Once around and coming evr more
Just to start all overAnd a face is there
From the fire a face is rising
Magic, like the reason of lifeHoly Flame,
The Ritual yearns without you
Understand,
The Mystery lies about you
Once again the fate has
Crossed our ways
As the fire burns and once again
The fate has crossed our ways
As the fire burns away...!
