

Solitude

Evanescence

How many times have you told me you love her?
As many times as I wanted to tell you the truth
How long have I stood here beside you?
I lived through you, you looked through meOoo, solitude
Still with me is only you
Ooo, solitude
I can't stay away from youHow many times have I done this to myself?
How long will it take before I see?
When will this hole in my heart be mended?
Who now is left alone but me?Ooo, solitude
Forever me and forever you
Ooo, solitude
Only you, only trueEveryone leaves me stranded
Forgotten, abandoned, left behind
I can't stay here another night
Your secret admirer, who could it be?Ooo, can't you see
All along it was me?
How can you be so blind
As to see right through me?And ooo, solitude
Still with me is only you
Ooo, solitude
I can't stay away from youSolitude
Forever me and forever you
Ooo, solitude
Only you, only true
