

If I Only Had a Brain

Kay Kyser, Harry Babbitt

See, I cant scare anybody
They come from miles around to laugh in my face and eat in my field
    Said a scarecrow, swinging on a pole to some blackbirds
        Sittin on a fence, "Oh, the Lord gave me a soul
    But forgot to give me common sense" Said the blackbirds, "Well, well, well
        What the thunder would you do with common sense?"
    Said the scarecrow, "Would be pleasin just to reason out the reason
    Of the wishes and the whyness and the whence" If I had an once of common sense
        (If he had an ounce of common sense)
Well, what would you do, scarecrow? I would while away the hours conferin with the flowers
    Consultin with the rain and my head, Id be scratchin
        While my thoughts were busy hatchin
If I only had a brain Id unravel every riddle, for every individle in trouble or in pain
    With the thoughts Id be thinkin
        I could be another Lincoln
If I only had a brain Oh, I could tell you why the oceans near the shore
    I could think of things I never thought before
    Then Id sit and think some more I would not be just a nothin
        My head all full of stuffin, my heart all full of pain
    I would dance and be merry, life would be a dingle derry
        If I only had a brain If I only had a brain
    (If he only had a brain) I could tell you why the oceans near the shore
        I could think of things I never thought before
And then Id sit and think some more Ya, it would be kind of pleasin to reason out the reason
    For the things I cant explain
        Then perhaps Id deserve you and be even worthy of you
If I only had a brain I could dance and by merry, life would be a dingle derry
    If I only had a brain
        If I only had a brain
    (If he only had a brain)
