

Willing

Times of Grace

I wake with the wings of morning
To the light of a new day, now my eyes are open
Through the darkest times I find you
I find you always Cover me with your hands
Make me see all I am Though I fall I'm willing I could break fall back into sorrow
Give me life, make my faith much stronger
Now my eyes are open, though I feel I'm lost
I'll find a way, I'll find a way, I find a way to you Cover me with your hands
Make me see all I am Though I fall I'm willing This is the now, no longer will I wait my time
Can't lose faith
There'll be days of grace
I'd give it all, I'd give it all to see redemption reign Cover me with your hands
Make me see all I am Though I stumble
Though I stumble
Though I fall I'll live for you
