Paper Doll

Rosie Thomas

Tonight I'm like a paper doll
Dress me in what you wish I had on
And I will not say a thing
I'll just keep smiling
Here I am, wordless again
You dress me up different ways
Flat and thin, speechless within
You dress me up different ways
And I just can't be sure I'll ever change
And I do not like the clothes I wear
I'd sooner throw them into the air
But I will not say a thing
I'll just keep smiling
Here I am, wordless again
You dress me up different ways
Flat and thin, speechless within
You dress me up different ways
And I just can't be sure I'll ever change
Why is it now that you've cut me out
Of everything I was used to
Now, it's not that I stand here with no choice
I will choose now to raise up my voice
Here I am, wordless again, wordless again
And I just can't be sure I'll ever change
Tonight I'm like a paper doll
Cut from the page that I once lived on
And I will not say a thing
I'll just keep smiling, I'll just keep smiling
I'll just keep smiling, I'll just keep smiling
