Rebecca

Daniel Antopolsky

I see your wistful smile even in the morninâ€™ breeze
Your reflection in the lake is just laughinâ€™ at me
Everywhere I go, youâ€™ve got my head up in the clouds
I cannot see the bombs around me burstinâ€™ out loud, so
I take in a late night show, that plastic film can really roll
A war is on the radio
Kicked the TV long ago
Try to read but the book canâ€™t know, Rebecca, Rebecca
Ahoo, Rebecca
Ahoo, Rebecca

If love makes the world go â€˜round, Iâ€™d go around the world
From Kathmandu to Timbuctu, just searchinâ€™ for that pearl
Iâ€™d play all my cards and gamble with my life
And speak just when spoken to, Iâ€™d walk the edge of night
Every nationâ€™s up in arms, Iâ€™d open up my arms to you
Weâ€™re a notch in history
Just a wave upon the sea
You canâ€™t beat love for mystery, Rebecca, Rebecca
Ahoo, Rebecca
Ahoo Rebecca

Man takes up the knife to cut another man in two Thatâ€™s just the opposite of what I want for me and you
Two gentle hearts that often beat as one
Mythical as Mercury just waltzing in the sun
Planting flowers in the yard to a symphony at high noon
Birds sing to clarinets
Songs we canâ€™t fathom yet
The rainbowâ€™s your silhouette, Rebecca, Rebecca
Ahoo, Rebecca
Ahoo, Rebecca

Playwrites juggle differences, between what is and what could be
Some tell their stories build on utter fantasy
One thing I can not do is critize their plots
Iâ€™ve thrown myself in the driverâ€™s seat of a warship beinâ€™ shot
And when its time to end the song even if weâ€™re all alone
One thing we can be sure of

People push and people shove
If you write just one song write for your, Rebecca, Rebecca
Ahoo, Rebecca
Ahoo, Rebecca
Ahoo, Rebecca
