

Authenticity

Tiffany Alvord

Authenticity
Do things originally
You got your own style
Let everybody see
Gotta be unique
Take a chance and speak
Your mind, cause it only takes One step to your heart,
One step to your heart.
One step to your heart, And it only takes
One step to your heart,
One step to your heart,
One step to your heart.
And you'll know
And you'll know
And you'll know
Who you are Authenticity
Its implicitly
It's done so easily
Be who you're meant to be
Don't you compromise
What you feel inside
Be yourself 'cause it only takes One step to your heart,
One step to your heart.
One step to your heart, It only takes
One step to your heart,
One step to your heart,
One step to your heart.
And you'll know
Who you are So when your looking for yourself
And you sacrifice the things that make you you
'Cause your trying to be like everybody else
If you accept all that your worth
Know in you heart what you deserve
Then no-one can change you
No-one can make you
Your beautiful this way
So don't you ever change It only takes,
One step to your heart,
One step to your heart.

One step to your heart, And it only takes,

One step to your heart,

One step to your heart,

One step to your heart.

And you'll know

And you'll know

And you'll know

And you'll know

Who you are And you'll know

Who you are
