No Place To Run

Gym Class Heroes

Sometimes, seems it's harder to live than to regret
But there's nowhere to run, girl, but there's nowhere to run
I've found, you only live once, so don't look back
'Cause there's nowhere to run, girl, 'cause there's nowhere to run
Hey, we can escape into the masses
Slip out of our shells 'cause there's no one to impress
So grab onto my hand, nothing can stop us
Live like there's no tomorrow, like there's no tomorrow
Sometimes it's harder to face myself than face the world
But there's nowhere to run, girl, but there's nowhere to run
I've found we are who we are, so love yourself
'Cause there's nowhere to run, girl, 'cause there's nowhere to run
Hey, we can escape into the masses

Slip out of our shells 'cause there's no one to impress
So grab onto my hand, nothing can stop us
Live like there's no tomorrow, like there's no tomorrow
Lips are talking, eyes are watching, now until the end
Wouldn't it be nice to let 'em miss us?
Our eyes are locking, lips are sloppily luring us to sins
I'll take my chances now and beg forgiveness
Hey, we can escape into the masses
Slip out of our shells 'cause there's no one to impress
So grab onto my hand, nothing can stop us
Live like there's no tomorrow, like there's no tomorrow
Like there's no tomorrow, like there's no tomorrow
