The Terrible Sunrise

Bobby Bare Jr.

If you talk any faster with food in your teeth
I swear to God I am gonna call the police
The sunrise ain't pretty when you ain't been to bed
Tomorrow is today insteadAnd I know where you wanna go
The devil has crawled inside your nose
I have run with you as far as I can go
Completely out of controlThere's another motherfucker knocking on your door
With four drunk girls who wanna score
There's a dangerous dollar rolling up in your hand
While your newly wed waits in bedAnd I know where you wanna go
The devil has crawled inside your nose
I have run with you as far as I can go
Completely out of control
