

She Don't Let Nobody

Chaka Demus & Pliers

Other guys try to hold her hand
Other guys want a one night stand
They all stare when she's around
I'm so proud how she puts them down
She don't let nobody, no, no
She don't let nobody, nobody but me
I don't worry 'cause we're so tight
See each other 'most every night
She let me have the master key
That's why I kiss her explicitly
She don't let nobody, no, no
She don't let nobody, nobody but me
Some dudes, they think she's teasing
They think she wants to play
But she's so doggone pleasing
And hey, that's just her way
And no one's gonna steal her
She does what she wants to
She only lets me feel her
And then I know it's true
She don't let nobody, no, no
She don't let nobody, nobody but me
In a day and age when you can't be sure
I've got one with a love that's pure
Guess, you'd call her my lucky star
She goes out but she don't go far
She don't let nobody, no, no
She don't let nobody, nobody but me
Some dudes, they think she's teasing
They think she wants to play
But she's so doggone pleasing
And hey, that's just her way
And no one's gonna steal her
She does what she wants to
She only lets me feel her
And then I know it's true
She don't let nobody, no, no
She don't let nobody, nobody but me
