I Got You

Thompson Square

The car's got gasoline to run down the road
The crop's got rain, dirt and sun to make 'em grow
Song's got rhyme, the clock's got time
You got me and, baby
I got you, yeah, you're it
The missing piece that makes me fit
I got you, the breath I breathe
And there ain't nothing else I need
Baby, I got you
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
I don't need a big old house full of stuff
What my arms are wrapped around, that's enough
Your morning smile, your kiss goodnight
And everything's alright
'Cause I got you, yeah, you're it
The missing piece that makes me fit
I got you, the breath I breathe
And there ain't nothing else I need
Baby, I got you
When the right go wrong
When I'm scared to death and got nothing left to lean on
I got you, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, I do
Baby, I got you, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
And you got me too
I got you, yeah, you're it
The missing piece that makes me fit
I got you, the breath I breathe
And there ain't nothing else I need
Baby, I got you, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, baby, I got you, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Baby, I got you
Baby, I got you
