

Change Your Mind

The Killers

Racy days help me through the hopeless haze

But my oh my

Tragic eyes, that I can't even recognize

Myself behind

So if the answer is no

Can I change your mind?

Out again, a siren screams at half past ten

And you won't let go

While I ignore, that we both felt like this

Before it starts to show

So if I have a chance

Would you let me know?

Why aren't you shaking?

Step back in time

Graciously taking

Oh you're too kind

And if the answer is no

Can I change your mind?

We're all the same

And love is blind

The sun is gone

Before it shines

And I said, if the answer is no

Can I change your mind?

And if the answer is no

Can I change your mind?
