Over Again

Cavo

Well I will rise
the morning comes nothing ever stays the same
I saw it written on your own face You're not supposed to be the best of them you never ever could you're just supposed to stay the same And I could live this that for the most part
you were waiting on a change in a cold heart
And I remember you like you wanted 40 dollars before the day is gone somebody told me something nobody cared to tell you the truth
You never found a reason Caught in a lie and it's all that you're used to (living a lie)
Well I will rise
the morning comes
nothing ever stays the same I saw it written all over your... you're not supposed to stay around for this you're not supposed to change you're just supposed to go away

And I can live without
for the most part
you were waiting on a change, but a cold heart won't remember you like you wanted 40 dollars before the day is gone
somebody told me something (somebody told me...)
nobody cared to tell you the truth
You never found a reason
Caught in a lie and it's all that you're used to (living a lie)
Living a lie!!! somebody told you something
nobody cared to tell you the truth

You never found a reason
Caught in a lie and it's all that you're used to somebody told you something (somebody told me...)
nobody cared to tell you the truth
You never found a reason
Caught in a lie and it's all that you're used to (living a lie)
Living a lie!!!
(Drowning in lies)
Living a Lie!

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/