All I Want Is Love

Isabelle Boulay

I would start a war for you, if you let me
And I would wait a thousand years just to find you...
Waiting for meAll I want is love,
All I want is love,
All I want is love...
Your loveYour love it drowns and pulls me down, like the ocean...
The deepest ocean
When all I need is you to breathe, nothing else for meWhen all I want is love,
All I want is love,
All I want is love...
Your loveWhen I'm not with you, I lose my mind
And I'll be such a fool, if I'll never try
To tell you all the things I feel insideAll I want is love,
All I want is love,
All I want is love...
Your love
