Wild Beasts

Oh, don't you think
That people are the strangest things?
Design of desire
Means all that the heart requires
Is what it can't recognize, oh no, mmmOh, don't you think
That people are the hardest things?
Design of desire
Means all that the heart requires
Is what it can't compromise, oh no, oohI've made enough enemies
No, I've made enough enemiesForget now
How many must I forget now?
How many must I forget now?
How many must I forget?Remember
As many as I remember
As many as I remember
I must forgetRegret now
How many do I regret now?
How many do I regret now?
How many do I regret?Slender
Oh, there is some other slender
Oh, there is some other slender
Songs I regretOh, don't you think
That people are the strangest things?
Design of desire
Means all that the heart requires
Is what it can't sympathize, oh no
