Start It All Over

Amanda

Why do you think I have these tears in my eyes?
I'm tryin' hard, baby, not to remember
I told the truth but maybe I should have lied
But look who's sorry nowI kissed somebody but that's not what I meant
It was just a kiss, not a total surrender
And I swear that's as far as it went
But look who's sorry nowSo, whatever I did, whatever I said
Can't we start it all over?
And whatever it takes, whatever you say I'll do
So, let's start it all over againWhat was I thinking? Was I losing my mind?
You're everything that this girl ever wanted
I knew I'll never find someone like you
But look who's sorry, nowSo, whatever I did, whatever I said
Can't we start it all over?
And whatever it takes, whatever you say I'll do
I'll do, I'll doSo, whatever I did, whatever I said
Can't we start it all over?
And whatever it takes, whatever you say I'll do
So, let's start it all over againIf you could only forgive and forget
You're gonna have to find a way
I seem to remember 'bout once did it for you
Now, I'm beggin' you to do the sameStart it all over again
Can we start it all over?So, whatever I did, whatever I said
Can't we start it all over, baby?
And whatever it takes, whatever you say I'll do
So, let's start it all over againCan we start it once again?
Can we start it all over, baby?
Can we start it once again?
Can we start it, can we start all over again?
