

Frantic Romantic

Jermaine Stewart

cant you see im just a frantic romantic, so in love with you sipping wine by candle lights, while I gaze into your eyes as to treat you like you were a queen all the richest in the world, the biggest diamond or a Perl, you get nothing but the best from me you just stay the way you are theres no need for you to change you deserve the finest things for free if you ever wonder why, why I treat you oh so fine its because I want you only for me if I thought that id give you paradise, I wouldn't hesitate, no no no ill place in your hands with small demand today baby ,baby, baby

cant you see, im just a frantic romantic follow me, its my destiny
so in love, with you clime aboard my private jet, ill show you things you wont forget take a trip to some exotic love land your a vision your my star , your the magic to my heart every wish you have is my command if I thought that I (thought that I) give you paradise (paradise) I wont hesitate (hesitate) no no no ill place in your hands, with small demand today (baby baby baby)

follow me its my destiny
so in love with you- - -
