

Disaster

Blink 182

Disaster, disaster
Disaster, disaster
Fall comes a loaded gun
Black ties for everyone
Can you read my mind
(Fall in my arms again)
Grey stones that break apart
French braids demonic art
The dead come alive
(Fall in my arms again)
Again
I'm scared of the dark my friends
What do you fear, my love?
Hold on you're breaking up
Disaster, disaster
Disaster, disaster
White stones of hollow eyes
Death comes you better hide
Never rest in town

(Fall in my arms again)
Full moon on a rotten night
Eighteen and a wind came by
Not a soul around
(Fall in my arms again)
Again
I'm scared of the dark my friends
What do you fear, my love?
Your soul it will float like a dove
Your words they won't scream loud enough
But your lips they will stutter and quaver
You can't shake the taste of the blood
Hold on you're breaking up
(Breaking up)
I'm scared of the dark my friends
What do you fear, my love?
Your soul it will float like a dove
Your words they won't scream loud enough
But your lips they will stutter and quaver

You can't shake the taste of the blood
Hold on you're breaking up
(Breaking up)
