

I'm Not Needed Here Now

Billy Dean

The movers came today to take out things away
Memories that we held so dear
One by one they're out of here, I hung the 'For Sale' sign
On what was yours and once was mine One last look around to find
Any home we might have left behind
But the emptiness rings true
There's really nothing left to do 'Cause I'm not needed here now
You made it clear to me somehow
If it's not built on love, a home is just a house So I'll close and lock this door
Not coming back here anymore
It's time to face the fear, I'm not needed here now That's where he said his prayers
And learned to climb the stairs
Every room has history that holds a part of you and me
In my heart it's getting through
It's telling me that without you 'Cause I'm not needed here now
You made it clear to me somehow
If it's not built on love, a home is just a house So I'll close and lock this door
Not coming back here anymore
It's time to face the fear, I'm not needed here now
It's time to face the fear, I'm not needed here now

Songwriters

DAVID GATES, BILLY DEAN Published by

Lyrics © MIKE CURB MUSIC, DAVID GATES D/B/A KIPAHULU MUSIC

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>