

On Your Side

Madrugada

I'm really on your side
Although you may not ever believe that it's so
I've been taken to looking back
Across it all, it was never that bad
Oh you know For the minute a pretty face
In the mirror, to take my place
To submit to the, race
I'm going to see to your immediate needs
Love's for idiots, so leave me alone on my liberties
My liberties For twenty days or more
I've been staring a hole in the wall
So this business is what I left you for
We were never that bad together at all For the slightest little change
I will stitch it up and rearrange it
When I feel more than a little strange
Get someone else to do the thinking please
Love's for idiots, so leave me alone on my liberties
My liberties I'm really on your side
And I would never ever try and hurt you again no no
Take my blessings where ever you go
And if there's someone else to who you wish to go
I just don't want to know You're none of my business now
I do forget it sometimes
I don't know how
I get too weary and I get too loud I always knew there would be times like these
Love's for idiots, so leave me alone on my liberties
Leave me alone, my liberties
My liberties

Songwriters

Buras, Robert / Jacobsen, Frode / Hoyem, Sivert / Vangen, Simen Iversen Published by

Lyrics © EMI Music Publishing Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>