Secret Indictment

Keith Murray

Yo, yo, yo, yo, yo, yo, yo
This is for only certain people
(Word up)
This is for all my peoples in the struggle
All my people's in jail, all my people's dyin' to liveOn my way home alone
I took the shortcut through the danger zone
Ran into alligator looking Jerome
I jumped out the truck all drunkNuts hanging out the car like 'What?'
Nigga, I gives a fuck
He said, "What's up", I said, "What's up"
He said, "I need to be up"I went in my nuts hit him with a 100 yo
He gave me a glare with sparklin' gold teeth
And said, Yo Keith, your product is always peace
Yo son, you know I just got releasedI was on the block and got bagged by pussy police
And they the reason why Calvin is deceased
The bullshit will never cease but dough is comin' at least
I gave him a pound and a hugTold him, "Hold it down, thug", peace
I'm a fleece 'cause it's hotter than fish grease
We was high as a kite, feelin' kinda petro
I metroed my way back to the MonteroBefore I even made it to the car door
I was rushed by 2 jakes and then 2 more
So here we are fightin' through all the excitement
I ask, What you lockin' me up for?
One said, Secret indictmentThere's nowhere to run, nowhere to hide
The gates are locked and you are trapped inside
There's nowhere to run, nowhere to hide
The gates are locked and you are trapped insideStarin' at the face of the judge
With the identical image of a true thug
I shoulda smuggled in a shotty
(Word up)
'Cause they tryin' to treat me like I killed somebodyAnd what the D.A. had to say
Wasn't justice in no kinda way
Under the doc number 284389
We the people recommend upstate timeI said, Your honor, I can't even see that far
That's when my lawyer started droppin' the repertoire
He said, Your honor, these allegations
Against my client are very undefient toward the contrary"The judge said, Mr. Murray, didn't I tell you
If you in my courtroom again your ass is gone a long time"
Then he presumed, plus you're a member

Of the notorius gang The Legion of DoomHe said, Look at me, thought he shook me
I turn around and the bastard threw the book at me
I hope this teaches you a lesson, a half a million
Dollar bail, boom this court is in sessionI reach the tear visions of pair, remind me I'm locked up
So I got no chance but not to give a fuck
Check out my perspective as it dropped
A lock across ya chest and bust ya snotboxTechnicalities make me wanna bust chops and cops
And murder flocks in all actualities
That's a necessity in my recipe
Plus it was a black cop that framed meAnd if it ain't one thing, it's another ask my brother
Went in jail for one thing, stayed in for another
So here I am frustrated, sittin' in jail
Thinkin' bout all my unfinished business left in the worldI hopped on the jack connect with my connect
Told him what I was up against, plus they found a Tech
Get the cash together, put up the car and the house
We on the jail phone so watch what come out ya mouthIn 24 hours I was out but the situation's never ended
'Cause the case is pended, to be continued
