

Paradise Is Here

Cher

You say, you want to live some
Move out into the fast lane
You say you need excitement
To make you come aliveSome place, a million miles
From the shadows that surround you
I look for your attention
You're lost out in the futureWhere lovers ask no questions
And shadows never fall
Some pilgrim bound for paradise
No compromise, paradise is hereIt's time to stop your crying
The future is this moment
And not some place out there
Tonight I need your loveDon't talk about tomorrow
Right now I need your loving
Right now give it to me
Right now I want your loving
Right now, now, now, nowYou talk about your new plans
To move up on the stairway
Your dream about the high life
That's waiting for you thereA world of fame and fortune
That's just around the corner
But I don't need no high life
To make me feel a real manAnd I don't need to reach for
No castles in the sky
Just put your arms around me
Devour me 'cause paradise is hereIt's time to stop your crying
The future is this moment
And not some place out there
Tonight I need your loveDon't talk about tomorrow
Right now I need your loving
Right now give it to me
Right now I want your loving
Right now, now, now, nowTonight I need your loving
Paradise is here
