Opera

Hundred Reasons

We wrote fairy tales
Of how we'll live in castles
Tight like Hansel and Gretel
And grow old and settle
In a town that we'll tighten
With our marry day
We gonna love like that
Like everyday like every way
Like can I stay at yours tonight?
We can hold tight, love bite
And share some soul
We can pick and roll
Lose control and let me take it
Like how I let you break it
Don't forget we could
Get high on each other
And serve time for it
Through the night and back
Into the morning, can't crack the habit
So, you see I'm feening
I'm needing some more
And you got me grinning like it's Money that I'm winning
No way is this ending
'Cause you got me feeling purer than thou
You need to show me how you do this thing
'Cause you got me singing like
I'll crown you king of this throne
If you can take me home
Like runs with no stripes
It doesn't have to be tonight
How's about early morning, I'm talking AM
We can beat the dawn
Or just chill through time barriers
Can't help the whispers of I do
But you see through my proper test
Got me making game faces

In London we say lacing you say making sense

This shit's intense ya, I kinda [Incomprehensible] offence
'Cause you move me
So I broke my role and I got freaky with it
You chastise me with my own belt
I ain't gonna lie, I felt the universe move
You left me singing like opera
Like Cleopatra or Madam Butterfly
Yo it feels so good you brought tears
To my eyes I was like
Now, was that supposed to happen
All that foot tappin' voice breakin'
Now I'm carving Kamasutra diagrams, ya'll
With the headboard
Ignored the buzzer 4 times
Got up hard telling lies
Even surprised myself
With my conniving ways
I dived in like he meant survival
Like he was christened H20
Like he could make the trees grow
And the clouds spit snow
He laid kisses on my chest
Like his name was Zorro
Had me saying, "Hell No"
When he said he had to go
I was hiding clothes
And play fighting like children
We were clashing our Titans
Till weight we were losing
I had Slum Village album on repeat
We were knockin' boots to hip hop beats
I even reached my maximum in my sleep
Yo, he had me singing like
Yo, he had me, he had me
He had me like, he had me like
