

(This Ain't No) Drunk Dial

A Thousand Horses

Girl, don't hang up, I called on purpose
Yeah, I've had a few, hell I'm hurtin'
Our song came on the radio
I could hear you singin' along
So I took the long way home
So I could listen to it all
Sounds like ohhhh ohh ohh woah oh oh
It sounds like ohhhh ohh ohh woah oh oh
This ain't no drunk dial
Ain't no words that I'll forget
In the mornin'
Still mean everything I said
I know it's late and I ain't called in a while
But this ain't no drunk dial
We ain't gotta talk about what happened
But I'll take the blame if you want me to have it
Somewhere in this full moon night
There's a way to make this whole thing right
If you leave the front door open
I'll be there before you know it
This ain't no drunk dial
Ain't no words that I'll forget
In the mornin'
Still mean everything I said
I know it's late and I ain't called in a while
But this ain't no drunk dial
This ain't no drunk dial
This ain't courage from a bottle
It's just one last shot to give it all we got, yeah
Sounds like ohhhh ohh ohh woah oh oh
It sounds like ohhhh ohh ohh woah oh oh
But this ain't no drunk dial
Ain't no words that I'll forget
In the mornin'
Still mean everything I said
I know it's late and I ain't called in a while
But this ain't no drunk dial
This ain't no drunk dial
This ain't no drunk dial

This ain't no drunk dial
It sounds like ohhhh ohh ohh woah oh oh
