Taken By Surprise

The Outfield

She wakes me up in the middle of the night
When I'm rollin' over, rollin' over
She keeps on askin' is there something on my mind
I know she's getting close, just a little too closer and yetSecrets are hard for me to hide
'Cause I never know what she might find
Tellin' her lies, taken by surprise, taken by surprise, yeahShe calls me up every minute of the day
It's like she's checking me over, always over my shoulder and then
We talk and talk until there's nothin' left to say
I don't know what she's been talkin' but she won't leave me alone every nightShe never says what's on her mind
And the way that it looks, well I know she ain't blind
Tellin' her lies, taken by surprise, taken by surprise, yeahYou know this game is the same all the world over
No one laughs when they're takin' the blame
Over your shoulder, taken by surpriseCan't close my eyes in case I talk in my sleep
Ooh, I gotta lotta secrets that I know I wanna keep, yeah
She might even know what's goin' on
It's all just an act when she says nothing's wrong, like a disguiseTaken by surprise, taken by surprise, yeah
Taken by surprise, taken by surprise, yeah
Taken by surprise, taken by surprise, yeah
Taken by surprise, oh
