

I Owe It All to You

Rizen

My praise
For who You are to God
The things You do

I owe it all
Oh yes I do
My praise, and worship
For who You are
The things
I owe it all
In all of Your presence
I bow before Your Throne
You're the Ruler and Creator
Of every living thing
You give the air we breathe
Even this melody we sing
There's no one else who gives and supplies my every need
My all, my everything I owe
For who You are, yes the things
You are, I owe
I give You, my praise
My heart, mind, and soul
My life belongs to You
Lift your hands and say, everything, I bow
You've been an awesome God in my life
Now I have the chance to tell You oh God
You deserve glory
You deserve the praise
I'm here to tell You, thank ya
For everything You've done for me
And for what You've done
I present my life
As a living sacrifice, my all
I owe everything oh God
My praise, belongs to You
For who You are, the things You do
For all, I owe it all
You're worthy
Of the glory, yes God, and the honor

I've found You to be worthy of the praise
In the midnight hour
When my body's aching with pain
Yes, yes, yes You're worthy
That's why I give You praise
Do I have a witness out there?
Do I have a witness over there?
To know that God is worthy, worthy, worthy
My praise belong to You
Thinkin' of all else, hey God
You're my everything
That's why I glorify You
That's why I lift You up
You're worthy
