

The Lake (iTunes Session)

Denai Moore

Laid my pennies by the lake
Hoping the water could buy me fate
For all of my mistakes
That I have made Laid out memories by the lake
Hoping that they could sail away
Away from my mind
Theres a piece of you left behind I still see you there, out in the lake
Right in the middle where, it's all faint
The less I care the more that you'll fade
I still see you there out in the lake
Laid a letter by the lake
With all the worlds I want to say
And I know they'll be no reply
But I'd still want you to know why I still see you there, out in the lake
Right in the middle where, it's all faint
The less I care the more that you'll fade
I still see you there out in the lake You're sinking down, like a pebble in the lake
Like the ghosts of my past, thats faded away
And now I'm left with nothing but a memory
I still see you there, out in the lake
Right in the middle where, it's all faint
The less I care the more that you'll fade
I still see you there out in the lake
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>