

Two Worlds Collide

The McClymonts

Time for a change of scene,
To breathe a little easily,
I was thinking that you and me,
Can make some new memories, We can always run away,
(Oh, I'd like that)
Make our own great escape,
(Never come back), We stand as one and keep our hearts open,
Show us a sign I know we won't fall behind,
Hence two worlds collide,
Know that we know 'cause we got tomorrow,
Taking a chance we both make a sacrifice,
Hence two worlds collide, Who knew that we'd survive?
Our love can beat up tires,
Chasing those city lights,
Forever begins tonight, We can always run away,
(Oh, I'd like that)
Make our own great escape,
(Never come back), We stand as one and keep our hearts open,
Show us a sign I know we won't fall behind,
Hence two worlds collide,
Know that we know 'cause we got tomorrow,
Taking a chance we both make a sacrifice,
Hence two worlds collide, Crash and fell right into this fast and crazy life,
See them sparks fly when two worlds collide, We stand as one and keep our hearts open,
Show us a sign I know we won't fall behind,
Hence two worlds collide,
Know that we know 'cause we got tomorrow,
Taking a chance we both make a sacrifice,
Hence two worlds collide, (We stand as one and keep our hearts open,
Show us a sign I know we won't fall behind,
Hence two worlds collide)
