

B U + Me

Ian Britt

I promise that I wont leave your heart
Remain calm, even in the dark
Look beside you cos' I'm still here
No, I will never disappearSo don't you, no don't you panic when you think something's wrong
The guidebook has lost its way but we stay strong
Cos' it aint easy to keep things right
But we're still together god bless and goodnightThere's us, then everybody else
Who would you rather be?
So trust in the madness you and the madness of me
Cos' there's us, then everybody else
Who would you rather be?Be, you and me woah
Be, be you and meI know that I did wrong and I lied
But we all make mistakes it's a part of the ride
But we always find ourselves a new way through Cos' it aint living if it aint living with youThere's us, then everybody else
Who would you rather be?
So trust in the madness you and the madness of me
Cos' there's us, then everybody else
Who would you rather be?Be, you and me woah
Be, be you and meOh, oh, oh, yeah, alrightWe're still together oh we're riding through whatever to the daylight, to the daylight, yeah, yeah
We're still surviving, driving through the mayhem and the madness, all the madness, madness , yeah
We're still together, we're riding through whatever to the daylight, to the daylight, daylight, yeah
We're still surviving driving trough the mayhem to the madness
The monumental madness of usCos' there's us, then everybody else
Who would you rather be?
So trust in the madness you and the madness of me
Cos' there's us, then everybody else
Who would you rather be?Be, you and me woah
Be, be you and me
